

Tatyana (Eloyan) Edwardovna Svendsen

Tatyana is the sister of Vladislav Eloyan and granddaughter of Rotefan Eloyan Markosovich, US 69th Inf Div 271st Inf Reg AT Co and USSR 140th Inf Div. Tatyana lives and works in Denmark. Tatyana serves as a nurse in the Danish military. Her unit was deployed in Afghanistan in the global War on Terrorism. The US 3rd Battalion 1st Special Forces Group, Fort Lewis, Washington presented to Tatyana a Certificate of Appreciation for the cooperation provided by the Danish military with US Special Forces. Rotefan's legacy of bravery, sacrifice and service continues with his grandchildren. We are confident 69er Rotefan would be proud! Figure 2: Certificate of Appreciation given to SYPL Tatyana (Eloyan) Edwardovna Svendsen by the US 1st Airborne Special Forces Group on Feb. 1, 2011. The motto of the US Special Forces “De Oppresso Liber” is Latin for “to free from oppression.” This motto is so appropriate for a descendant of the brave and courageous 69er Rotefan Eloyan Markosovich.
